

June 13, 1878

CONGRESS of BERLIN

A European diplomatic Congress (6/13)
to settle the Eastern question, which grew out of the Russo-Turkish War. The SAN STEPHANO TREATY was reconsidered;
the boundaries of Bulgaria were cut down.
Eastern Roumelia was made a Turkish province (but it soon united voluntarily with Bulgaria). Crete was to be governed better. Boundaries of Greece were defined.

Bosnia & HERZEGOVINA were placed under the administration of Austria-Hungary. MONTENEGRO, SERBIA & ROMANIA were declared independent and territory added to them. the Danube
below the IRON GATE was neutralized.

Russia kept most of her conquests in Asia.
Great Britain held CYPRUS for Turkey as a guarantee against further aggressions of Russia in Turkey in Asia.